ABOUT TOWN.

DEERING HARVESTER Oil for sale at S. M. KARRICK'S.

A large number of seats have already been sold for the performance of "Magna" at the Opera House tonight, and a large crowd will no doubt attend.

Pure Apple Vinegar, "guaranteed." S. M. KARRICK.

Harris' show attracted a large crowd to town Monday and the attendance was good. The circus is about up to the average of country shows, and everyone seemed well pleased with the performances.

Deering Twine—THE BEST. S. M. KARRICK.

ALL summer goods, such as organdies and lawns, percales, laces, embroideries, etc., will be sold from now on at cost, so as to make room for our fall stock, soon to be brought on. Come and see for yourself. W. SMITH & CO.

Deering Machine Oil. S. M. KARRICK.

SPECTACLES and eyeglasses to suit all sight at Dr. Grigsby, located at Fred Hagan's store.

WALTER LEACHMAN telephones us from Tatham Springs to the effect that they have a good crowd of guests there now, and are expecting a rush on the house for next week.

SCYTHES and cradles stocked; wagon and carriage repairing by W. H. Bond, back of KARRICK'S store.

Lubricating Oil. S. M. KARRICK.

Don't forget to go to W. Smith & Co. for summer dress goods and trimmings, which they are selling at cost. The figures are low.

WANTED—Stock to pasture. C. C. McGUIRE.

J. B. PETER & Co. shipped two carloads of lambs and two carloads of hogs to the Louisville market Tuesday.

ALL glasses sold by Dr. Grigsby are guaranteed to give satisfaction.

RICHARD PARROTT sold for Wallace McElroy, Tuesday, thirty-three of the finest lambs that have ever been seen in this season. They averaged 87 pounds each, and twenty could have been selected from the lot that would have weighed 100 pounds.

At 8:30 p. m., Sunday, June 7, the religious services of laying the corner stone of the new Methodist church at Pleasant Run, will be held. B. F. Atkinson, pastor, officiating. All friends who have subscribed or promised money for the erection of this church will do so as a great favor by paying the money over to me by that date. If not convenient to hand it to me, send check or P. O. order by mail, as the work will be rapidly advanced toward completion. I wish to make an itemized report of all subscriptions paid up at the above date.

B. F. ATKINSON, Treas.

WEEK in need of spectacles and eye glasses go to Dr. W. C. Grigsby, the Optician.

Harris' Nickel Plate show which exhibited here Monday, met with something of a mishap at Smith's Grove, in Warren county, where it exhibited Saturday. Just before the performance began, it is stated, all the tents of the circus were blown down and badly damaged by a severe storm. While the keeper of the elephant was on his way to the grounds, he was seized by one of the animals thrown into a pond and nearly drowned by the infuriated animal, and only the timely assistance of helpers saved his life.

Dr. W. C. GRIGSBY, the Optician, tests your eyes free.

The salary of W. A. Waters as Postmaster at Springfield, has been increased from $1,000 to $1,100 per year. Mr. Waters received notice of the increase in his salary the day after the arrival of his new son, and he is now speculating on how the postmaster learned so promptly of the increase in his family and the consequent increase in his necessaries.

The closing exercises of the Springfield High School, which has been so ably conducted for the past season by Prof. George Colvin and Miss Mag Thompson, took place on last Wednesday evening at St. Dominic Hall. The exercises which consisted of declamations and essays by the graduating class, interspersed with musical selections by the pupils of Miss Jeanie Joyner's class, were interesting throughout, and the pupils acquitted themselves very creditably. The valedictory address was delivered by Miss Sue Ray, while Mr. Marshall Duncan delivered the statutory in a bright and entertaining way.

"An Easy Way." See ad of S. M. KARRICK.

MONROE HAGAN, a colored man who works on the farm of Mike Shanahan, near St. Rose, was struck by lightning on last Saturday and badly injured. Hagan, who had been working in a field, took shelter with his team under a tree during a shower, the lightning struck the tree and hit the man burning him badly on one side of his body. He was found in an unconscious condition several hours later. It is thought he will recover.

The speed program of the Merion County Fair, which was published this week shows a fine list of premiums to be contested for each of the four days. All together there will be hung up $2,500 divided between the trotters and pacers. The event takes place August 16, 17, 18 and 19. The forenoon of each day will be occupied by the ring-shows and the afternoon by the racing. Write to Secretary Sam T. Spalding, at Lebanon, Ky., for particulars.

CLUEL MCKENNA, who returned at several months ago from Frankfort, where he had served a term in the pen for carrying up another negro, is in trouble again. He was tried before Judge Baker yesterday for "robbing a gun." It seems that Cluel threatened to burn a colored damsel on the night night recently and pulled a pistol to demonstrate how he would proceed. The women got out of his way and swore out a warrant for his arrest. The judge gave him ten days in jail and a fine of twenty-five dollars.

LAZARUS TUCKER, an armed negro about town, was arrested last week on the charge of larceny. He was committed to jail to have been committed with his daughter. He was brought out for trial on Tuesday and his attorneys waived examination. His bond was fixed by Judge Litsay at $50. The penalty for the offense with which Tucker is charged is a term in the penitentiary of not less than two or more than twenty-one years.

Deaths.

On Tuesday, at his home near Williamsburg, this county, Mr. Ben Burch, a well known farmer and good citizen.

Charles Bogus Montgomery, a native of Washington county, but who has for the past ten years lived in Louisville, died at the latter place Tuesday. His remains were brought here last evening for burial.

Mrs. Spalding, mother of Mr. Taylor and Dr. Spalding, died at her home on Hardins Creek, Tuesday, after a long illness.

Mrs. Clara Luckett Willett, widow of Frank Willett, died at her home near St. Rose, Wednesday at St. Rose Thursday. The funeral took place at St. Rose Thursday.

D. M. Harbor, father-in-law of T. E. Wilson, died Thursday at the home of the latter near Williamsburg. The remains were interred at Perryville, where the deceased had been engaged in business for the last few years.

A Troublesome Prisoner.

Jim Waters had an experience while acting as special guard for a prisoner, the like of which he says he hopes never to have happen to him again. William Jones, who has formerly been considered a good citizen, was indicted on several counts during the last term of the grand jury for robbing his neighbor's granary.

He was arrested and taken to town by Deputy Sheriff Byron Crook last week and begged to be loaned a guard to go with him to Nelson county where he could see some relatives about making a bond. Mr. W. A. Waters very kindly offered to pay the services of a guard, and ex-constable Jim Waters was employed to go with the prisoner to the home of the latter's father-in-law in Nelson county. Jones' interview with his relative, it seems, did not result satisfactorily to him as the old gentleman refused to go on the bond, and as the guard and the prisoner were leaving the place the latter made a desperate attempt at escape. It seems that Waters had got out of the buggy for the purpose of opening a gate, and Jones, thinking he saw an opportunity to shake off the shackles of the law, whipped up the horse thinking to leave his guardian in the lurch. He had made a mistake in his man, however, for Jim, after a desperate sprint, succeeded in seizing the hind end of the vehicle and swung on like a bulldog. Jones kicked and made desperate efforts to shake him off, but it was no go for Jim's death-like grip tightened and he crawled further into the buggy until he was able to grasp a line and pulled the horse around so as to upset the vehicle. After the prisoner had been spilled out and had looked down into the muzzle of the officer's gun, he surrendered and was brought on to jail. Waters had nearly all of his clothes torn off in the scuffle, and was severely bruised.

—Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Cambron were over from Lebanon to attend the McElroy birthday wedding.

—Mrs. M. M. Kerkel and her sister, Mrs. Brown of Nelson county, are visiting relatives at Lancaster.

—Miss Viola Brown, who has been at Louisville attending school, is at home for the summer.

—T. W. Simms, Jr., spent several days at Tatham last week and returned very much improved in health.

—Miss Annie Cunningham is home for the vacation. She has been attending school at Oxford, Ohio.

—Miss Lydia Grundy and Messrs. Will Leachman and H. R. Thompson spent a day with Miss Houston at Mass.

—Messrs. Carl Litsay and Clay Britton were over from Lebanon Tuesday, guests at the Suseman home.

—Mr. L. C. Peter, of the Mackville neighborhood, is moving this week to Indianapolis, Ind., where he will make his future home.

—Misses Angela and Mary Agnes Wadd, daughters of Agent J. A. Mudd, came home from school at Chicago yesterday for the vacation.

—H. Thurman was in Louisville Friday. He incidentally took in the ball game between the Louisville and Cincinnati clubs.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Robertson are at Tatham Springs this week. News received from them indicates that Mr. Robertson is very much benefited by the water.

—Miss Annie D. Grundy, who has been quite sick from the effects of a fall she received at her home here, is very much improved and is able to be out again.

—Mr. Henry Bacon, of the Nelson Road, was in town Tuesday and added this office a call. He is traveling in the interest of the Scale Printing Co., state printers, in which concern he is largely interested.

—Messrs. George Medley and T. W. Wadd, left yesterday for Notre Dame, Ind., to attend the closing exercises of the college, at which Tom Medley will deliver the valedictory address.

The honor of being chosen valedictorian of such a large class is quite important and young Medley deserves great credit.
